Asking Price

A simply exceptional four-bedroom house that has been completely remodelled and fully extended to create a perfect family home. The house subtly marries together period features alongside modern contemporary design to an exacting standard throughout. Features include a gorgeous ground floor extension providing an extended kitchen/breakfast room, a wonderful loft conversion and a large garden with uninterrupted views beyond. The ground floor living space offers hallway with storage, bay fronted lounge with a marble fireplace, and a sensational kitchen/breakfast room. Stairs lead to the first floor that offers three good sized bedrooms and one family bathroom with a standalone shower. The top floor provides a spacious principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom and ample storage built into the eaves. Grosvenor Avenue is a very desirable residential zone due to its close proximity to the outstanding-rated East Sheen Primary School, as well as being in close reach to Barnes and Mortlake Stations and to Barnes and East Sheen's amenities. Richmond Park, Barnes Common and Palewell Park are also a short distance.
