A spacious split-level two bedroom apartment on the first floor of this semi-detached period property. This light and bright home combines character period features with modern living. There are high ceilings throughout, several original feature fireplaces, a modern bathroom, a storage loft and double glazing throughout. The master bedroom leads to a private decked south-west facing sun terrace. The reception room with feature fireplace is exceptionally light with a large bay window and unobstructed views across Barn Elms playing fields. The kitchen with integrated appliances, slate flooring and breakfast bar also benefits from a small balcony. Barnes station (26 mins to Waterloo) is close by as are the frequent bus services. The green open spaces of Barnes and Putney Common are moments away.
