Manor Road, Richmond, TW9

This impressive period property with off street parking has been beautifully extended and enhanced to create the ideal family home. Offering generous and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, the house effortlessly blends timeless character with contemporary design elements throughout. Spacious, stylish, and superbly appointed, it provides the perfect balance of classic charm and modern convenience.

The property features four well-proportioned bedrooms and two beautifully finished bathrooms, making it perfectly suited for growing families or those who love to entertain. To the rear, a meticulously landscaped garden offers a tranquil outdoor retreat, complete with an outbuilding that is fully powered, sound insulated, and includes a modern shower room.

Manor Road is ideally located close to everything that Richmond has to offer including access to the 2500 acres of beautiful Richmond Park via Sheen Common and Richmond Riverside. A large Sainsburys supermarket and North Sheen station are on your door step and Richmond town centre and station (District Line, Overground Line, Mainline to Waterloo) are within walking distance. Some of the most sought after state and private schools in the borough are also close by including the 'Outstanding' Marshgate and Holy Trinity Primary Schools and several excellent nurseries within convenient walking distance.
