Coval Gardens London SW14

Rarely available three-bedroom semi-detached family home situated on the highly desirable cul-de-sac of Coval Gardens. The property offers two spacious reception rooms, a bright conservatory, a fitted kitchen with utility room, and a generous rear garden with both lawn and patio areas. Upstairs there are two excellent double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, a large single bedroom with en-suite, and a family bathroom with bath, separate shower and vanity unit. Further benefits include a garage, off-street parking, loft storage and the home's ideal proximity to Sheen Mount Primary School. The property also presents enormous potential to extend (subject to the usual consents), making it an exceptional long-term family home.
