Richmond Park Road, London SW14

A simply superb and wonderfully stylish five bedroom, three bathroom semi-detached family home, ideally located in one of East Sheen's most popular Parkside tree-lined avenues.

This substantial property has been transformed in recent years to create a fabulous home that succeeds in producing a rare combination of elegance and style together with comfort and practicality. The accommodation, arranged over three floors, offers expertly designed flexible space for the growing family, with a spectacular open plan kitchen/dining/family room as the heart of the home.

Clever touches are everywhere and extra thought has been applied to maximise natural light throughout this stunning property. Outside space has been intelligently planned and laid out to make the most of a pretty, private garden to the rear and a deep driveway with concealed storage to the front.

Richmond Park Road is situated within particularly easy reach of the shops, bars and restaurants of Sheen's high street, the glorious open spaces of Richmond Park are also close by, as is Mortlake station, providing a regular service to London Waterloo.
