This exceptional four-bedroom terraced house is located moments from the River Thames. Arranged over four floors, the home offers generous fitted storage throughout. The lower ground floor features a stylish kitchen/dining room opening onto a private garden and a separate living room. The raised ground floor includes an additional reception room, a double bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe, and a modern shower room. The upper floors offer two further double bedrooms, one with a large dressing area, a luxury family bathroom, and a top-floor principal bedroom with fantastic river views and an en-suite bathroom.

Mortlake and Barnes Bridge stations provide regular services to London Waterloo, while the pubs, independent boutiques, and cafés of Barnes Village and White Hart Lane are just a short walk away. Barnes Common, Richmond Park, and Kew Gardens are also within easy reach.
