Benkart Mews, London, SW15

Guide Price

A beautifully presented four bedroom terraced townhouse extending to approximately 1500 sq ft, set within the highly regarded and peaceful Benkart Mews. Offering spacious accommodation, a landscaped private garden, balcony, two off street parking spaces and access to a private residents' gym, this impressive St James development makes an ideal family home.

The ground floor features an excellent kitchen/dining room, providing generous space for a dining table and comfortable seating area. Modern French doors open onto the landscaped rear garden, which enjoys excellent privacy and creates a wonderful space for entertaining and relaxing. There is also a cloakroom, useful storage and underfloor heating.

The spacious first-floor drawing room benefits from double doors opening onto a lovely balcony overlooking the garden, with ample space for outdoor seating. Four bedrooms and three bathrooms are arranged across the first and second floors, offering flexible accommodation for family life, guests and home working.

Additional benefits include an installed water softener tap in the kitchen, boarded loft, two off-street parking spaces and beautifully landscaped communal gardens.
